

Voice Mail

Voice mail is now second-nature within the business world, but it can be the first contact a prospective client has with your company. O'Neal Consultants helps you identify and implement a voice mail system that meets your highest standards. The best system will maximize company potential, not only freeing up staff for other tasks, but offering features that facilitate inter-office communication, such as providing a common messaging platform.

O'Neal Consultants' services include developing a voice mail system Request for Proposal (RFP) and managing the procurement process, so that you have our expert supervision regarding proposal comparisons, contract documents, installation monitoring, and final inspection.
